BY THE HEARING OFFICER:

On May 7, 2024, Long Drive Luxury Shuttle, LLC, ("Applicant") Omaha, filed an application seeking authority as a common carrier in Nebraska intrastate commerce in the transportation of passengers in Limousine service by van in and between points in Douglas, Sarpy, Lancaster, Buffalo, and Hall counties, on the one hand, and, on the other hand, points in Nebraska over irregular routes. HHS Designation: No.

Notice of the application was published in The Daily Record on June 5, 2024. On June 10, 2024, a protest was received from VIP Limousine, LLC ("Protestant"). On August 13, 2024, the protest filed by VIP Limousine, LLC was granted.

A hearing on this matter was held on Tuesday, October 8, 2024, at 2:00 p.m. CST, in the Commission Hearing Room, 1200 N Street, Suite 300, Lincoln, Nebraska.

On October 9, 2024, Protestant notified Commission staff and Applicant that Protestant had decided to withdraw their protest "immediately and unconditionally."

After due consideration, I find that Protestant's motion to withdraw their protest should be granted.
