

OCTOBER 2024

J.P. Morgan Kronos US Equity (JPUSKRSE) Excess Return Index

PERFORMANCE UPDATE

The J.P. Morgan KronosSM US Equity (JPUSKRSE) Excess Return Index attempts to provide a dynamic net 50% long, net 50% short or net uninvested exposure to the price performance of the S&P 500[®] Price Index ("the S&P 500") based on the following principles:

- Strong historical performance around the turn of the month
- Historical price momentum ahead of index options' expiry
- Historical mean reversion at month-end

The Index does not reflect the reinvestment of dividends and is subject to a daily deduction of 0.35% per annum index fee and, when leveraged exposure is provided, a notional financing cost, as well as a deduction equal to any dividends on the underlying components of the S&P 500[®] Price Index.

The Index was established on June 11, 2021.

Levels are published on Bloomberg using the ticker JPUSKRSE.

Hypothetical and actual historical performance: Sep 2014 through Sep 2024

Please see the footnotes at the bottom of this page and "Backtesting" on the following page for information on backtested performance.

Note: The Index is constructed by looking at the outperformance of a dynamic exposure to the S&P 500[®] Price Index over a constant S&P 500[®] Total Return Index performance. For example, a net exposure of 50% long exposure corresponds to a 150% long exposure to the S&P 500[®] Price Index and a 100% short exposure to the S&P 500[®] Total Return Index.

Selected Risks

- Our affiliate, J.P. Morgan Securities plc ("JPMS plc"), is the sponsor and calculation agent of the Index and may adjust the Index in a way that affects its level.
- The level of the Index will include the deduction of a fee of 0.35% per annum and, in some circumstances, a notional financing cost based on the Effective Federal Funds Rate.
- Dividends or other distributions on the equity securities underlying the Constituent will adversely affect the performance of the Index.
- The Index will provide an effective exposure to the price performance of the Constituent, which may adversely affect the performance of the Index.
- JPMorgan Chase & Co. is currently one of the companies that make up the Constituent.
- There are risks associated with the Index's turn-of-month strategy.
- There are risks associated with the Index's option expiry momentum strategy.
- There are risks associated with the Index's mean reversion strategy.
- The Index's strategies are applied during only a portion of each month.
- The Index may be adversely affected by an overlap between its turn-of-the-month strategy and its month-end mean reversion strategy.
- The Index may be significantly uninvested.
- The Constituent of the Index may be replaced by a substitute index in certain extraordinary events.
- The notional cash return will be negatively affected if the underlying interest rate is negative.
- The Index, which was established on June 11, 2021, has a limited operating history and may perform in unanticipated ways.
- The Index comprises notional assets and liabilities. There is no actual portfolio of assets to which any person is entitled or in which any person has any ownership interest.
- The Index may not be successful or outperform any alternative strategy that may be employed of the Constituents.
- The Effective Federal Funds Rate is affected by a number of factors and may be volatile.
- The method pursuant to which the Effective Federal Funds Rate is determined may change, and any such change may adversely affect the value of notes linked to the Index.

The risks identified above are not exhaustive. You should also review carefully the related "Risk Factors" section in the prospectus supplement and the relevant product supplement and underlying supplement and the "Selected Risk Considerations" in the relevant pricing supplement.
