

OCTOBER 2024

MerQube US Tech+ Vol Advantage Index

PERFORMANCE UPDATE

The MerQube US Tech+ Vol Advantage Index (the "Index") attempts to provide a dynamic rules-based exposure to the underlying asset to which the Index is linked (the "Underlying Asset"), while targeting a level of implied volatility, with a maximum exposure to the Underlying Asset of 500% and a minimum exposure to the Underlying Asset of 0%. Since February 9, 2024 (the "Amendment Effective Date"), the Underlying Asset has been an unfunded position in the Invesco QQQ TrustSM, Series 1 (the "QQQ Fund"), calculated as the excess of the total return of the QQQ Fund over a notional financing cost. Prior to the Amendment Effective Date, the Underlying Asset was an unfunded rolling position in E-Mini Nasdaq-100 futures (the "Futures Contracts").

The Index is subject to a 6.0% per annum daily deduction, and the performance of the Underlying Asset is subject to a notional financing cost deducted daily.

The Index was established on June 22, 2021.

Levels are published on Bloomberg using the ticker MQUSTVA.

- The performance and market value of the QQQFund, particularly during periods of market volatility, may not correlate with the performance of the QQQFund's underlying index as well as the net asset value per share.
- The Index, which was established on June 22, 2021, has a limited operating history and may perform in unanticipated ways.

The risks identified above are not exhaustive. You should also review carefully the related "Risk Factors" section in the prospectus supplement and the relevant product supplement and underlying supplement and "Selected Risk Considerations" in the relevant pricing supplement.

Disclaimer

The information contained in this document is for discussion purposes only. Any information relating to performance contained in these materials is illustrative and no assurance is given that any indicative returns, performance or results, whether historical or hypothetical, will be achieved. These terms are subject to change, and J.P. Morgan undertakes no duty to update this information. This document shall be amended, superseded and replaced in its entirety by a subsequent preliminary pricing supplement and/or pricing supplement, and the documents referred to therein. In the event any inconsistency between the information presented herein and any such preliminary pricing supplement and/or pricing supplement, such preliminary pricing supplement and/or pricing supplement shall govern.

Backtesting: Hypothetical backtested performance measures have inherent limitations. Alternative modelling techniques might produce significantly different results and may prove to be more appropriate. Past performance, and especially hypothetical back-tested performance, is not indicative of future results. This type of information has inherent limitations and you should carefully consider these limitations before placing reliance on such information.

Use of hypothetical backtested returns

Any backtested historical performance and weighting information included herein is hypothetical. The constituent may not have traded in the manner shown in the hypothetical backtest of the Index included herein, and no representation is being made that the Index will achieve similar performance. The hypothetical historical levels presented herein have not been verified by an independent third party, and such hypothetical historical levels have inherent limitations. There are frequently significant differences between hypothetical backtested performance and actual subsequent performance. The results obtained from backtesting information should not be considered indicative of the actual results that might be obtained from an investment in notes referencing the Index. J.P. Morgan provides no assurance or guarantee that notes linked to the Index will operate or would have operated in the past in a manner consistent with these materials. The hypothetical historical levels presented herein have not been verified by an independent third party, and such hypothetical historical levels have inherent limitations. Alternative simulations, techniques, modeling or assumptions might produce significantly different results and prove to be more appropriate. Actual results will vary, perhaps materially, from the hypothetical backtested returns and allocations presented in this document. HISTORICAL AND BACKTESTED PERFORMANCE AND ALLOCATIONS ARE NOT INDICATIVE OF FUTURE RESULTS.

Hypothetical back-tested performance measures have inherent limitations. Hypothetical back-tested performance is derived by means of the retroactive application of a back-tested model that has been designed with the benefit of hindsight. Hypothetical back-tested results are neither an indicator nor a guarantee of future returns. Alternative modelling techniques might produce significantly different results and may prove to be more appropriate. A copy of the index methodology is available upon request or can be viewed on MerQube's website.

MerQube performed the calculation of the hypothetical back-tested performance data. Neither J.P. Morgan Securities LLC (JPMS), nor any of its affiliates paid MerQube to perform these calculations. JPMS has entered into a license agreement with MerQube, Inc. that provides for an exclusive license to it and certain of its affiliated or subsidiary companies, in exchange for a fee, of the right to use the Indices, which are owned and published by MerQube, Inc. JPMS worked with MerQube in developing the guidelines and policies governing the composition and calculation of the Index. The policies and judgments for which JPMS was responsible could have an impact, positive or negative, on the level of the Index and the value of your notes. JPMS is under no obligation to consider your interests as an investor in the notes in its role in developing the guidelines and policies governing the Index or making judgments that may affect the level of the Index.

In addition, the QQQ Fund replaced the Futures Contracts as the Underlying Asset on the Amendment Effective Date. No assurance can be provided that the QQQ Fund is an appropriate substitute for the Futures Contracts. This replacement may adversely affect the performance of the Index and the value of the notes, as the QQQ Fund, subject to a notional financing cost, may perform worse, perhaps significantly worse, than the Futures Contracts. The Index lacks any operating history with the QQQ Fund as the Underlying Asset prior to the Amendment Effective Date and may perform in unanticipated ways. Investors in the notes should bear this difference in mind when evaluating the hypothetical back-tested performance shown in this document.

The 10 Year Volatility (Annualized) on the previous page is a measure of market risk, calculated as of the square root of two hundred and fifty-two (252) multiplied by the sample standard deviation of the daily logarithmic returns of each applicable index or portfolio (considering only days for which levels are available for all three) over the preceding 10 years.

Investment suitability must be determined individually for each investor, and notes linked to the Index may not be suitable for all investors. This material is not a product of J.P. Morgan Research Departments.
