DKSH Receives Regional Headquarters Certificate in Shanghai

DKSH's subsidiary, DKSH (Shanghai) Ltd., is proud to announce that the company has been awarded the "Regional Headquarters Certificate for Multinational Corporations" by the Shanghai Municipal Commission of Commerce for its operational excellence. This certification will support DKSH's business expansion in China and allow the company to benefit from market conditions.

Shanghai, July 26, 2024 — At the ceremony for the "Regional Headquarters Certificate for Multinational Corporations", the Shanghai Municipal Commission of Commerce confirmed DKSH (Shanghai) Ltd.'s status as one of the regional headquarters for multinational corporations and awarded the corresponding certificate.

To attract more foreign investors to establish headquarters in Shanghai and enhance the city's position as a global innovation hub, the Shanghai government actively promotes the certification of multinational corporation headquarters of leading global companies. Certified enterprises must demonstrate substantial business scale, local influence, strategic importance, innovation, regulatory compliance, and social responsibility.

Built on a foundation of service excellence, DKSH is committed to delivering innovative products and solutions for various industries, creating value for clients, and continuously driving business innovation and development. This certification will further encourage DKSH's innovation and growth in the Chinese market. DKSH continues to invest significantly to provide superior and efficient services to clients while actively contributing to Shanghai's economic construction and development.

Carole Lin, Head Country Management, DKSH China, represented the company at the award ceremony and remarked: "We are very grateful for the recognition by the Shanghai Municipal Commission of Commerce. This honor not only acknowledges our past achievements but also motivates our future development. Moving forward, we will continue to uphold the principles of innovation, excellence, and sustainability to provide more comprehensive and superior services to our clients while actively participating in the economic prosperity and development of Shanghai."
