

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, National Preparedness Month creates an important opportunity for every resident of Alabama to prepare their homes, businesses and communities for emergencies, natural or manmade disasters; and

WHEREAS, investing in the preparedness of ourselves, families, businesses and communities can save lives and reduce economic devastation in our communities and nation; and

WHEREAS, the Alabama Emergency Management Agency and the Governor's Office of Volunteer Services cooperate with other state and federal government agencies, including local emergency officials and other federal, state, local, private and volunteer agencies; and

WHEREAS, together, these entities are working to increase public awareness in preparing for emergencies and educating individuals on how to take action; and

WHEREAS, emergency preparedness is the responsibility of every Alabamian, and all citizens are urged to make preparedness a priority and work together as a team to ensure that individuals, families and communities are prepared for disasters and emergencies of any type; and

WHEREAS, all citizens of Alabama are encouraged to participate in citizen preparedness activities and are asked to make a preparedness plan;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim September 2024, as

National Preparedness Month

in the state of Alabama.

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 19th day of September 2024.

Kay Ivey

Kay Ivey, Governor