1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Curtis Motorcycle Company Inc. was originally formed as Confederate Motors, Inc. in 1991, and was incorporated in 2003 in the state of Delaware. On January 3, 2018, the Company changed its name to Curtiss Motorcycle Company Inc.

The financial statements of Curtiss Motorcycles Company Inc. (which may be referred to as the "Company", "we", "us", or "our") are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP"). The Company's headquarters is located in Leeds, Alabama.

The Company is the creator of the motorcycles pre-sold online at curtissmotorcycles.com. The Company is on a mission to lead an all-new golden age of sustainable motorcycles by designing and crafting the world's best and finest electric motorcycles.

Management Discussion and Analysis

We have a rare opportunity to authenticate a 2.0 American restoration of the legacy brand that invented the 1.0 American road bike in 1900 by reinventing the American road bike in 2025 in an order of magnitude better way.

Curtiss formed to transform the recreational American road bike into hyper and purest luxury. We own a fierce, American Way, product-focused, design-driven, no compromise, finest of all culture. Our muse is Glenn Hammond Curtiss.

The American Way of business seeks the accumulation of virtue as the only true path to sustainable growing net revenue.

Finance synchronicity is key!

The bottom line is simple; a long time ago our country's greatest motorcycle legacy, Curtiss, was lost to history. We're bringing it back as the American Motorcycle Luxury.

For 33 years Curtiss has focused 100% on American Motorcycle Luxury. 8 years ago, we determined that our focus requires luxury EV powertrain technology. Pursuant to this fact, we invented and patented the best way to make the electric motorcycle. We sourced the finest axial flux motor programmed for highest fidelity. Our first two models, the Curtiss 1 and the Core 60 Speedster, are both production-ready based upon this superior technology. Our plan is to produce and deliver 120 Curtiss 1 motorcycles in 2027. Based upon internal sales interest, we believe this positions Curtiss for a significant 2028. This defends our planned 2026 listing/IPO and/or M&A exit.

The recreational electric motorcycle (E2W) market will grow exponentially, long-term.

The sweet spot for this growth is luxury, where we have passionately concentrated our work for 33+ years. The future is electric and we believe the electric E2W is superior, than any other, ICE or E2W. We have concentrated exclusively on this market for 33 years. We know it very well. These clients desire cool, easy, safe, hassle-free fun that is sophisticated and sexy. They demand authentic pedigree and will only own the best and finest.

Curtiss is the authentic brand to lead this inevitable transformation. Curtiss led the American motorcycle market and culture to begin with. As Curtiss 2.0, we have reestablished our leadership position and shall never again let go of it.

Unlike 1.0, our sole passion is the Curtiss family of motorcycles and our clients who pilot them. Our American Way, daring, meritocratic, product-focused, design-driven culture is 33+ years in the making!

We have honored our first iron law: that authenticity rules us; thus, reinventing the best possible way to make a motorcycle at this transcendent period was mandatory for a marque like Curtiss. Motorcycles have always been motorized bicycles. We have always fantasized about a motorcycle that could begin life as what it is, growing from the inside-out. This led to our invention of Axis-Centered Power. Now, for the first time, a Curtiss motorcycle is given life by tapping the 39mm hard steel shaft through the center of its best-of-all axial flux motor. The chassis and legs of the beast flow organically from this massive axis. The result holistically frames symmetry, harmonizing balance, proportion and beauty. This patented technology is at least as substantive and significant for the E2W as skateboard battery architecture is for the automobile.

These plans and claims are subject to uncertainties inherent in events outside of our control.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The accounting and reporting policies of the Company conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("US GAAP"). The Company has adopted the fiscal year ending March 31 as its basis of reporting.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with United States GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include all cash in banks. The Company's cash is deposited in demand accounts at financial institutions that management believes are creditworthy. The Company's cash and cash equivalents in bank deposit accounts, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. As of June 30, 2024, and June 30, 2023, the Company's cash and cash equivalents did not exceed FDIC-insured limits.

Inventories

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost or net realizable value. The costing is done on a first-in first-out basis.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Normal repairs and maintenance costs are charged to earnings as incurred and additions and major improvements are capitalized. The cost of assets retired or otherwise disposed of, and the related depreciation are eliminated from the accounts in the period of disposal and the resulting gain or loss is credited or charged to earnings.

Depreciation is computed over the estimated useful lives of the related asset type or term of the operating lease using the straight-line method for financial statement purposes. The estimated service lives for property and equipment are as follows:

Category	Useful life
Machinery And Equipment	5 years
Furniture And Fixtures	5 - 7 years
Automobiles	5 years
Leasehold Improvements	15 years
Other Equipment	5 - 10 years

Impairment of Long-lived Assets

Long-lived assets, such as property and equipment and identifiable intangibles with finite useful lives, are periodically evaluated for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. We look for indicators of a trigger event for asset impairment and pay special attention to any adverse change in the extent or manner in which the asset is being used or in its physical condition. Assets are grouped and evaluated for impairment at the lowest level of which there are identifiable cash flows, which is generally at a location level. Assets are reviewed using factors including, but not limited to, our future operating plans and projected cash flows. The determination of whether impairment has occurred is based on an estimate of undiscounted future cash flows directly related to the assets, compared to the carrying value of the assets. If the sum of the undiscounted future cash flows of the assets does not exceed the carrying value of the assets, full or partial impairment may exist. If the asset carrying amount exceeds its fair value, an impairment charge is recognized in the amount by which the carrying amount exceeds the fair value of the asset. Fair value is determined using an income approach, which requires discounting the estimated future cash flows associated with the asset.

Income Taxes

Curtiss Motorcycle Company Inc is a C corporation for income tax purposes. The Company accounts for income taxes under the liability method, and deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying values of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates in effect for the year in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. A valuation allowance is provided on deferred tax assets if it is determined that it is more likely than not that the deferred tax asset will not be realized. The Company records interest, net of any applicable related income tax benefit, on potential income tax contingencies as a component of income tax expense. The Company records tax positions taken, or expected to be taken, in a tax return based upon the amount that is more likely than not to be realized or paid, including in connection with the resolution of any related appeals or other legal processes. Accordingly, the Company recognizes liabilities for certain unrecognized tax benefits based on the amounts that are more likely than not to be settled with the relevant taxing authority. The Company recognizes interest and/or penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits as a component of income tax expense.

Equity Issuance Costs

Equity issuance costs are costs directly attributable to the issuance of equity securities including common stock and/or preferred stock. These costs generally include underwriting fees, legal fees, accounting fees, printing and filing fees, and other costs associated with the issuance of equity securities. The company recognizes these costs as a reduction in proceeds from the issuance of stock.

Revenue Recognition

The Company is currently pre-revenue and will follow the provisions and the disclosure requirements described in ASU 2014-09 also referred to as Topic 606. Revenue recognition, according to Topic 606, is determined using the following steps:

- Identification of the contract, or contracts, with the customer: the Company determines the existence of a contract with a customer when the contract is mutually approved; the rights of each party in relation to the services to be transferred can be identified, the payment terms for the services can be identified, the customer has the capacity and intention to pay, and the contract has commercial substance.
- 2) Identification of performance obligations in the contract: performance obligations consist of a promise in a contract (written or oral) with a customer to transfer to the customer either a good or service (or a bundle of goods or services) that is distinct or a series of distinct goods or services that are substantially the same and that have the same pattern of transfer to the customer.
- 3) Recognition of revenue when, or how, a performance obligation is met: revenues are recognized when or as control of the promised goods or services is transferred to customers.

The Company earns revenues from the sale of its motorcycles.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company is subject to concentrations of credit risks primarily from cash, cash equivalents, restricted cash, accounts receivable, and notes receivable. At various times during the years, the Company may have bank deposits in excess of Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation insurance limits. Management believes any credit risk is low due to the overall financial strength of the financial institutions. Accounts receivable consist of uncollateralized receivables from customers/clients primarily located throughout the United States of America.

Cost of sales

Cost of sales includes the cost of retail products, raw materials, packing materials, freight and delivery, and other variable and fixed overheads.

Research and Development

Costs incurred in the research and development of the Company's products are expensed as incurred.

Advertising and Promotion

Advertising and promotional costs are expensed as incurred. Advertising and promotional expenses for the years ended June 30, 2024, and June 30, 2023, amounted to $2,082 and $73,738, respectively, which is included in sales and marketing expenses.

Leases

The Company determines if an arrangement is a lease at inception by determining whether the agreement conveys the right to control the use of the identified asset for a period of time, whether the Company has the right to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from the use of the identified asset, and the right to direct the use of the asset. Lease liabilities are recognized at the commencement date based upon the present value of the remaining future minimum lease payments over the lease term using the rate implicit in the lease or the Company's incremental borrowing rate. The incremental borrowing rate is defined as the rate of interest the Company would have to pay to borrow on a collateralized basis over a similar term in an amount equal to the lease payments in a similar economic environment. The Company's lease terms include options to renew or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain that it will exercise the option.

The lease right-of-use assets are initially measured at the carrying amount of the lease liability and adjusted for any prepaid or accrued lease payments, remaining balance of lease incentives received, unamortized initial direct costs, or impairment charges relating to the right-of-use-asset. Certain leases contain escalation clauses, which are factored into the right-of-use asset where appropriate. Lease expense for minimum lease payments is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Variable lease expenses include payments related to the usage of the leased asset (utilities, real estate taxes, insurance, and variable common area maintenance) and are expensed as incurred. The Company's lease agreements do not contain any material residual value guarantees or material restrictive covenants.

Stock-Based Compensation

The Company accounts for stock-based compensation to both employees and non-employees in accordance with ASC 718, Stock-Based Compensation. Under the fair value recognition provisions of ASC 718, stock-based compensation cost is measured at the grant date based on the fair value of the award and is recognized as expense ratably over the requisite service period, which is generally the option vesting period. The Company uses the Black-Scholes option pricing model to determine the fair value of stock options.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The carrying value of the Company's financial instruments included in current assets and current liabilities (such as cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable, and accrued expenses approximate fair value due to the short-term nature of such instruments.

The inputs used to measure fair value are based on a hierarchy that prioritizes observable and unobservable inputs used in valuation techniques. These levels, in order of highest to lowest priority, are described below:

Level 1—Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets that are accessible at the measurement date for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2—Observable prices that are based on inputs not quoted on active markets but corroborated by market data.

Level 3—Unobservable inputs reflecting the Company's assumptions, consistent with reasonably available assumptions made by other market participants. These valuations require significant judgment.

Subsequent Events

The Company considers events or transactions that occur after the balance sheet date, but prior to the issuance of the financial statements to provide additional evidence relative to certain estimates or to identify matters that require additional disclosure. Subsequent events have been evaluated through September 12, 2024, which is the date the financial statements were issued.

9. INCOME TAXES

The provision for income taxes for the year ended As of June 30, 2024, and June 30, 2023, consists of the following:

As of period ended June 30	2024		2023
Net Operating Loss	(34,684) $	(65,355)
Valuation Allowance	34,684		65,355
Net Provision for income tax	$ -	$	-

Significant components of the Company's deferred tax assets and liabilities as of June 30, 2024, and June 30, 2023, as follows:

As of period ended June 30	2024	2023
Net Operating Loss	$ (5,155,874)	$ (4,961,112)
Valuation Allowance	 5,155,874	4,961,112
Total Deferred Tax Asset	$ -	$ -

Management assesses the available positive and negative evidence to estimate if sufficient future taxable income will be generated to use the existing deferred tax assets. On the basis of this evaluation, the Company has determined that it is more likely than not that the Company will not recognize the benefits of the federal and state net deferred tax assets, and, as a result, a full valuation allowance has been set against its net deferred tax assets as of June 30, 2024. The amount of the deferred tax asset to be realized could be adjusted if estimates of future taxable income during the carryforward period are reduced or increased.

For the three months ending June 30, 2024, the Company had a net operating loss ("NOL") of $126,023 and the Company had a net operating loss ("NOL") carryforwards of approximately $18,622,510. Utilization of some of the federal and state NOL carryforwards to reduce future income taxes will depend on the Company's ability to generate sufficient taxable income prior to the expiration of the carryforwards. Under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, the NOLs and tax credit carryforwards are subject to review and possible adjustment by the IRS and state tax authorities. NOLs and tax credit carryforwards may become subject to an annual limitation in the event of certain cumulative changes in the ownership interest of significant stockholders over a three-year period in excess of 50%, as defined under Sections 382 and 383 of the Internal Revenue Code, as well as similar state provisions. This could limit the amount of tax attributes that can be utilized annually to offset future taxable income or tax liabilities. The amount of the annual limitation is determined based on the value of the Company immediately prior to the ownership change. The Company has not performed a comprehensive Section 382 study to determine any potential loss limitation with regard to the NOL carryforwards and tax credits.

The Company recognizes the impact of a tax position in the financial statements if that position is more likely than not to be sustained on a tax return upon examination by the relevant taxing authority, based on the technical merits of the position. As of June 30, 2024, and June 30, 2023, the Company had no unrecognized tax benefits.

The Company recognizes interest and penalties related to income tax matters in income tax expense. As of June 30, 2024, and June 30, 2023, the Company had no accrued interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions.

10. RELATED PARTY

11. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Contingencies

The Company's operations are subject to a variety of local and state regulations. Failure to comply with one or more of those regulations could result in fines, restrictions on its operations, or loss of permits that could result in the Company ceasing operations.

Litigation and Claims

From time to time, the Company may be involved in litigation relating to claims arising out of operations in the normal course of business. As of June 30, 2024, and 2023, there were no pending or threatened lawsuits that could reasonably be expected to have a material effect on the results of the Company's operations.

12. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company considers events or transactions that occur after the balance sheet date, but prior to the issuance of the financial statements to provide additional evidence relative to certain estimates or to identify matters that require additional disclosure.

There have been no other events or transactions during this time which would have a material effect on these financial statements.

13. GOING CONCERN

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. The Company has a net operating loss of $126,023, and liquid assets in cash of $42,143 as of June 30, 2024. Moreover, the Company is in default on 2 of its loans as of June 30, 2024 (see Note 8).

The Company's ability to continue as a going concern in the next twelve months following the date the financial statements were available to be issued is dependent upon its ability to produce revenues and/or obtain financing sufficient to meet current and future obligations and deploy such to produce profitable operating results.

CURTISS MOTORCYCLES COMPANY INC. NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THREE MONTHS ENDED TO JUNE 30, 2024, AND JUNE 30, 2023

Management has evaluated these conditions and plans to generate revenues and raise capital as needed to satisfy its capital needs. During the next twelve months, the Company intends to fund its operations through debt and/or equity financing.

There are no assurances that management will be able to raise capital on terms acceptable to the Company. If it is unable to obtain sufficient amounts of additional capital, it may be required to reduce the scope of its planned development, which could harm its business, financial condition, and operating results. The accompanying financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from these uncertainties.
