On September 25, 2024, the Senate Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs ordered reported the following two pieces of legislation that would name U.S. Customs and Border Protection facilities:

- H.R. 5799, the James R. Dominguez Memorial Act of 2023; and
- S. 3181, the Michel O. Maceda Memorial Act, which was subsequently reported by the committee on the same day.

CBO estimates that naming those facilities would have no significant cost. Any related spending would be subject to the availability of appropriated funds.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is David M. Rafferty. The estimate was reviewed by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Director of Budget Analysis.
