NRC Advisory Committee on Reactor Safeguards Seeks to Fill Open Positions

The Nuclear Regulatory Commission is seeking qualified candidates for open positions on its Advisory Committee on Reactor Safeguards. The ACRS is an advisory group that provides independent technical review of, and advice on, matters related to the safety of existing and proposed nuclear facilities and on the adequacy of proposed reactor safety standards. It also advises the NRC on health physics and radiation protection issues.

Interested individuals can find candidate criteria and details in the Federal Register notice published on July 16 and available on the NRC's website. Resumes will be accepted until Oct. 11.

Resumes should be sent to Sandra Walker, ACRS, Mail Stop T2B50, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, DC 20555-0001, or e-mailed to Sandra.Walker@nrc.gov.

More information on the ACRS is available on the NRC's website.
